The operation of the mechanism is without these extraneous applianances of strings that might fail to operate, or complicated levers or gearing that requires skilled handling. gleton, on a charge of kidnapping. The complainant in the case, James J. White, about four years ago married Mrs. Merriman's daughter, a girl of twenty years, and removed with her to Milwaukee. There a child was born to them, and their married life went on smoothly until a year or so ago, when Mrs. White discovered that her husband had another wife living in Wisconsin. She notified him that she was going to leave him, and before going he obtained her signature to an agreement surrendering the child to the father. White then took the child to his wife's mother, to whom he paid regularly five dollars a week to take care of it. A few weeks ago Mrs. Merriman conceived the idea that White would in a short while take the child away with him to England, and she has since refused to allow him to see his son. White learned that Mrs. Merriman had placed the child with parties in Jersey City, and on going to his mother-in-law's house, at No. 448 Smith street, Brooklyn, he was told that the child had been taken away. He went at once before one of the Supreme Court justices in Brooklyn and applied for a writ of habeas corpus. The writ was granted, and Mrs. Merriman was cited to appear with the child in court at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. Merriman, on receiving notice of the writ, left Brooklyn, and took a room in Taylor's Hotel. White followed her, and caused Justice Davis, of Jersey City, to issue a warrant, upon which she was arrested. She is now in police headquarters awaiting examination. Since her incarceration she

A Husband Helps His Wife to Death. Mrs. Julia L. Unlike her mother, she had widely read and justly admired. She seems, also, to have possessed much of her mother's had been in very bad health, and about her recovery was impossible. On the 10th instant she died, or rather was aided to death by her husband and chloroform. The widower, writing on the day of his wife's decease, says that "she might have her about dying; she said she had no fear of the hereafter-no dread only of the pain of dying. She begged me to give her chloeasy." And the time, in the opinion of the husband, unsupported, it appears, by medical counsel, did come, and when he saw her in a condition of what he calls festrangling" he gave her the bottle; she inhaled

LOCAL MATTERS.

GENERAL-SKETCH OF THE NOMINEE.-GOVernor Kemper yesterday appointed General ames G. Field, the Conservative candidate for that office, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Hon. R. T. Daniel.

General Field was born in Culpeper county, and is about fifty years of age. He is a son of L. Y. Field, Esq., and a nephew of Judge Richard H. Field, judge of the Circuit Court. At quite an early age he went into the Mexican war, and served gallantly with Colonel Henry Hill, of the old army. At the close of that war he returned to his home in Culpeper, studied law, and entered upon the practice of his profession.

He filled with distinction for a number of years the position of Commonwealth's attorney of his native county, and this was the only office he ever held save the high one to which he has just been appointed. From the first he was noted for the ability and zeal with which he presecuted his profession, and he stood at the head of the bar in Culpeper. At the breaking out of the late war he at once took up arms in his State's defence, and entered the army as a private in the Culpeper Minute-Men, and served gallantly in the ranks until made quartermaster of General A. P. Hill's corps. Not only was incumbent upon his office, but he was an active staff officer in the field. He was wounded in the first battle of Cold Harbor. and lost a leg at the battle of Cedar Moun-

When he had recovered from the effects of his wound he went back to the army and served gallantly until the surrender at Apcomattox. Since the war he has been practicing his profession in Culpeper county with great success. During this time he has rendered efficient service to the Conservative party, and has taken an active part in every canvass.

He is at present engaged as counsel for the State in the investigation of the Chesapeake and Obio Canal matter. No man stands higher in his native county than General Field. He has long been a consistent member and deacon in the Baptist Church. General Field is a widower, and has four children. His oldest son graduated at the last session of Richmond College with distinction.

THE COMING STATE FAIR-GENERAL WADE HAMPTON TO DELIVER THE ANNUAL AD-DRESS-PRESIDENT HAYES INVITED TO BE PRESENT .- The managers of the State Agricultural Society are busily engaged in preparing for the Fair. Everything promises well, and it is confidently expected that there will be the most successful exhibition since the war. Premium-lists are quite in demand at the secretary's office, and letters of inquiry and circulars from a distance are pouring in. Much interest from a distance is already manifested, though our own people are not yet waked up. They will come in time.

Improvements are being made on the grounds. The Centennial building presented to the Society by Edwin G. Booth, Esq., has been completed, and carpenters are at work overhauling the other buildings and structures so as to have everything in order in time.

The attractions will be unusual. General Hampton is to be the orator on the occasion, the Society. The military exhibition will 3; W. A. Crenshaw, 4; E. B. the minister who had been sent for to marry arranging for a grand tournament. The swain.

Returning, the Sylvester was discoved that he had a former wife liv- the fact that one of the excursionists will reach Old Point about 9 P. M. Sunday, and the Hancox will leave that place for cordial feeling entertained for him by his Richmond on Tuesday at 7 A. M. The trip, friends and himself, and in testimony there- as will be seen, will give excursionists ty-six at Old Point.

The Sylvester has now been drawn from the James River Line, but the agents keep rabilis. The President, in a graceful and the steamer to charter to pic-nic parties and excursionists.

> SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT .- The enter tainment in the basement of St. Patrick's church on the night of the 28th, for the benefit of the Little Sisters of the Poor, gotten up by little Catholic girls of Seventeenth street of the ages of seven to twelve years, was a decided success, and considering the short time they had to rehearse, each little one rendered her part remarkably well. This is the second affair of the kind gotten up by those little ones, each of which was much praise.

A NEW POTATO .- Mr. Ashburner, who lives in Henrico six miles from Richmond, exhibited in our office on the 22d of August a sweet potato that was planted on the 10th of June last. It therefore had ripened in two months and twelve days. It is called the "Peabody Early," and flowers and bears seed. We never heard of any other field Fisk appealed to the Hustings Court. that did this. It is rather of a pinkish color, and resembles the yam, but it is more dry and less sweet than the yam. Its quality of ripening early is its great recommendation.

COLORED CONCERT .- A concert and tab eaux was given this week twice at the Third Colored Methodist church for a charitable object. The palm of victory for vocalismwas awarded Miss Tilghman. All the performances were creditable.

WHEAT .- Offerings of this cereal for the week ending yesterday were 16,000 bushels, short as compared with the week preceding. Under the influence of this "shortness prices were better for all grades.

Seaside Edition of Dead-Sea Fruit, by Miss Braddon; Little Kate Kirby, by F. W. Robinson; Jacob Faithful, by Captain Marryatt, and Don Juan, by Lord Byron, received from J. T. Ellyson, bookseller, 1112 Main street.

MANCHESTER NEWS.

The Lash .- John McTyre, who stole the watch from Mr. A. C. Harding's store, was yesterday awarded twenty lashes by the Bailed .- William Maddera, charged with feloniously cutting Miss Booth several weeks since, applied for bail yesterday before Judge Clopion on a writ of habeas corpus. Bail was granted in the sum of $250, with S. Mills and George Westcoat bondsmen. Minor Mention .- Our brickmen have lone a flourishing business this summer. Three nor hern capitalists passed through the city yesterday for Chesterfield county.
